

QUEST

MIDDLESEX COUNTY • NJ

Crack the clues, conquer the Quest!

August 2 - October 11, 2023

Team up to complete the Middlesex County scavenger hunt. Solve riddles to uncover exciting locations, snap a pic of your discovery, and submit your photos.

Visit 10 locations to win a t-shirt or visit all 25 places for a chance to win the grand prize.

Visit DiscoverMiddlesex.com/quest or scan the QR code to learn how to play.

MIDDLESEX
COUNTY • NJ

Solve the riddles and snap your team's photos

- Where can you celebrate Thomas Edison's brightest idea?
- Visit the location where the past comes alive and history's stories thrive.
- Dive under the sea and stay perfectly dry when you visit this piece of art in Woodbridge Township.
- Be transported back in time when visiting this "alley" in Metuchen.
- Visit one of the County's newest parks named after a famous resident.
- People used to ride the rails at this popular biking location.
- Visit Thompson Park and show us you're "kind of a big dill" by taking a photo while playing this sport!
- If you dare, stay the night at this location. It's rumored the food and history are so rich... some guests never leave. (Hint: Guests have been staying since the 1750s.)
- The final resting place of this famous figure, also known as "Lobelia," is located in Plainsboro.
- Where can you play golf without a club in Thompson Park?
- Visit the outdoor spot where rockstars, princesses, and jazz musicians shared the spotlight this summer.
- This mysterious resting place is rumored to have inspired the hit song "Brandy (You're a Fine Girl)," by Looking Glass.
- Legend says, if you and your partner walk around this location on Rutgers' campus three times, you'll live happily ever after.
- What's a panda's favorite place at Rutgers?
- Visit this brand-new work of art to be transported through Raritan Bay by land, sea, and air!
- Go to the gardens in East Brunswick where flying rainbows flutter around you. If you're lucky, one may even land on you.
- Find the whirlybird with a toothy grin in Milltown.
- Take a photo with the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse in Roosevelt Park.
- He was one of our Founding Fathers and is now the biggest star on Broadway! Find the marker that bears his name.
- This downtown area was named a winner of the 2023 Great American Main Street Award by Main Street America.
- This long-extinct creature is on display in New Brunswick, also known as Mammut Americanum.
- This location features a gallery of original art from illustrated children's books, showcasing the work of over 100 artists.
- "It's my life, it's now or never." You'll make it to this singer's alma mater if you're clever.
- Visit the place in Edison where "colts" wander freely (between classes).
- "Laugh, don't weep. It feels better!" Find the spot that spreads joy in a place of sorrow.

Upload your photos here!

