

Quest 2023 Key

- Where can you celebrate Thomas Edison's brightest idea?
Answer: Menlo Park Lightbulb in Edison
- Visit the location where the past comes alive and history's stories thrive.
Answer: East Jersey Old Town Village
- Dive under the sea and stay perfectly dry when you visit this piece of art in Woodbridge Township.
Answer: The scuba diver mural at the Avenel St. underpass.
- Be transported back in time when visiting this "alley" in Metuchen.
Answer: Imagination Alley
- Visit one of the County's newest parks named after a famous resident.
Answer: Thomas Mundy Peterson Park
- People used to ride the rails at this popular biking location.
Answer: Middlesex Greenway
- Visit Thompson Park and show us you're "kind of a big dill" by taking a photo while playing this sport!
Answer: Pickleball
- If you dare, stay the night at this location. It's rumored the food and history are so rich... some guests never leave. (Hint: Guests have been staying since the 1750s.)
Answer: Cranbury Inn
- The final resting place of this famous figure, also known as "Lobelia," is located in Plainsboro.
Answer: Elsie the Cow grave
- Where can you play golf without a club in Thompson Park?
Answer: Disc golf course
- Visit the outdoor spot where rockstars, princesses, and jazz musicians shared the spotlight this summer.
Answer: Plays in the Park stage in Roosevelt Park
- This mysterious resting place is rumored to have inspired the hit song "Brandy (You're a Fine Girl)," by Looking Glass.
Answer: Mary Ellis grave
- Legend says, if you and your partner walk around this location on Rutgers campus three times, you'll live happily ever after.
Answer: Passion Puddle
- What's a panda's favorite place at Rutgers?
Answer: The bamboo forest, Rutgers Gardens
- Visit this brand-new work of art to be transported through Raritan Bay by land, sea, and air!
Answer: New mural at Raritan Bay Waterfront Park
- Go to the gardens in East Brunswick where flying rainbows flutter around you. If you're lucky, one may even land on you.
Answer: East Brunswick Butterfly Park
- Find the whirlybird with a toothy grin in Milltown.
Answer: The helicopter with teeth
- Take a photo with the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse in Roosevelt Park.
Answer: Light Dispelling Darkness Fountain
- He was one of our Founding Fathers and is now the biggest star on Broadway! Find the marker that bears his name.
Answer: Alexander Hamilton Marker at Rutgers
- This downtown area was named a winner of the 2023 Great American Main Street Award by Main Street America.
Answer: Metuchen
- This long-extinct creature is on display in New Brunswick, also known as Mammut Americanum.
Answer: Mastodon at Rutgers Geology Museum
- This location features a gallery of original art from illustrated children's books, showcasing the work of over 100 artists.
Answer: Zimmerli
- "It's my life, it's now or never." You'll make it to this singer's alma mater if you're clever.
Answer: Sayreville War Memorial High School
- Visit the place in Edison where "colts" wander freely (between classes).
Answer: Middlesex College
- "Laugh, don't weep. It feels better!" Find the spot that spreads joy in a place of sorrow.
Answer: Three Stooges Tombstone in Metuchen