

I acknowledge that participating in the Bark Rangers program may entail known and unanticipated risks, which may result in physical injury or property damage. These risks may occur as a result of including, but not limited to my own actions, inactions or negligence, as well as actions, inactions or negligence of others, weather conditions, condition of equipment, condition of the facilities and grounds. As part of my participation in this program, I release, discharge, and hold harmless the County of Middlesex, its elected officials, officers, department heads, office directors, employees, or any person acting in any capacity on their behalf (collectively referred to as the “County”) from all demands, causes of action, suits, contracts, agreements, obligations covenants, defenses, costs, liabilities and judgments, whatsoever, known or unknown, in contract or in tort, in law or in equity, which I may have against the County, arising from my participation. I hereby waive all claims and demands against the County for any loss, damage, injury or claim of any kind arising from, related to or caused by my participation and agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the County from all loss, liability, damages, costs and expenses (including actual attorney’s fees) arising from or related to same.

By taking part in this program, you grant Middlesex County full rights to use the resulting images for publicity or marketing purposes. This might include (but is not limited to), the right to use them in print and online marketing materials, social media, and press releases.

The Bark Rangers contest including the physical activity book and prize are only available to Middlesex County residents. Non-residents may use the PDF version of the activity book, but are not eligible to win the prize.
