

A DAY TRIP FOR FRIENDS

MORNING MEMORIES

Take NJ Transit from Penn Station to New Brunswick or rent a zip car for the day!

Did Someone Say Brunch?

If you're looking for an upscale vibe, head to The Frog & Peach for their Sunday brunch menu. We recommend the bacon beignets!

If you're in need of a pick-me-up, check out Hidden Grounds Espresso Bar – coffee flight, anyone?

AFTERNOON ADVENTURES

Head over to South Brunswick for some afternoon adventures.

Sunflowers & Sunshine

Head to Clark Farms where summer vibes are strong with pick-your own sunflowers. It's the perfect spot for an Insta-worthy photoshoot.

Happy Girl Walk

If you're looking for a more active outdoor adventure, head to a Middlesex County park.

For the serious hikers, we recommend Davidson's Mill Pond Park. This tranquil spot is full of fun-but-tough switchback trails.

If you're coming from the U-Pick farms and want to enjoy your berries, Jamesburg Park Conservation Area is a great spot for a picnic and easy hike!

EVENING EXCURSIONS

Head back to New Brunswick for some dinner and entertainment.

Dinner

Salt Seafood & Oyster Bar and Cuzin's Seafood Clam Bar are also both delicious, upscale seafood options.

For a speakeasy vibe with unique bites like "alligator in a blanket", check out the underground restaurant Clydz.

For traditional Mediterranean and Middle Eastern fare try out Sahara by the Rutgers University campus. This spot has plenty of vegetarian and vegan options, too.

Entertainment

Looking for a bit of night-life before you head home? Check out the Stress Factory Comedy Club! Catch a comedy act by famous comedians like Nimesh Patel and Michael Easton.

If theater is what you're looking for, check out the lineup at the state-of-the-art New Brunswick Performing Arts Center.
