MIDDLESEX
COUNTY · NJ

A DAY TRIP FOR FRIENDS

MORNING MEMORIES

Take NJ Transit from Penn Station to New Brunswick or rent a zip car for the day!

Did Someone Say Brunch?

If you're looking for an upscale vibe, head to The Frog & Peach for their Sunday brunch menu. We recommend the bacon beignets!

If you're in need of a pick-me-up, check out Hidden Grounds Espresso Bar – coffee flight, anyone?

AFTERNOON ADVENTURES

Head over to South Brunswick for some afternoon adventures.

Corn Maze Masterpiece

At Etsch Farms, you come for the pumpkin picking, but you stay for the corn maze. This themed, 8-acre corn maze experience is one you won't want to miss! Plus, sample delicious apple cider donuts and slushies, enjoy a hayride, and meet the cute farm animals.

Happy Girl Walk

If you're looking for a more active outdoor adventure, head to a Middlesex County park.

For plant and animal lovers, we recommend John A. Phillips Preserve. Download the Nature Trail Guide for a short, scenic hike.

If you're coming from the Etsch farms and looking for a tranquil spot, Jamesburg Park Conservation Area is a great spot for a picnic and easy hike!

EVENING EXCURSIONS

Head back to New Brunswick for some dinner and entertainment.

Dinner

If you're looking for dinner and a show, there are several options including Old Bay. Live music and seafood – what more could you want?

Salt Seafood & Oyster Bar and Cuzin's Seafood Clam Bar are both delicious, upscale seafood options.

For a speakeasy vibe with unique bites like "alligator in a blanket," check out the underground restaurant Clydz.

For traditional Mediterranean and Middle Eastern fare, try out Sahara by the Rutgers University campus. This spot has plenty of vegetarian and vegan options too.

Entertainment

Looking for a bit of night-life before you head home? Check out the Stress Factory Comedy Club! Catch a comedy act by famous comedians like Nimesh Patel and Michael Easton.

If theater is what you're looking for, check out the lineup at the state-of-the-art New Brunswick Performing Arts Center.

discovermiddlesex.com